

Write What Matters. Share How AI Is Changing Education

Newsletter Intern

What You'll Do:

You'll write and design stories for our AI & EDU newsletter—covering innovative classroom ideas, educator interviews, and AI trends that make learning more human and creative. You'll help shape tone, layout, and digital distribution.

Skills You Will Need:

- Writing, editing, and proofreading for clarity
- Research and fact-checking
- Layout design in Beehiiv
- Collaboration
- Meeting editorial deadlines and revising with feedback

What You'll Gain:

- Mentorship in professional writing and content strategy
- Portfolio pieces that show communication and digital literacy

Ideal for

Writers, editors, or communicators who want to use storytelling and design to make complex ideas accessible and inspiring.
