

National Louis University is pleased to announce the:

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR CLAVE DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS (2022 - 2023 academic year)

The CLAVE Doctoral Fellowship program is designed to develop and support a network of promising Latinx and BIPOC doctoral scholars. It will be awarded to nine (9) incoming or current NLU doctoral students who demonstrate significant potential to become educators, leaders, and scholars at local, state, and national levels.

Recipients receive up to $5,000 with an additional $300 book and materials allowance for each of the two years of this Fellowship. (See: <https://nl.edu/centro-de-excelencia-at-nlu/graduate-students/> for further information)

Application Deadline: Wednesday, August 31, 2022, by/before 11:59 pm

Application Process:

1. Submit the online application at <https://forms.gle/aRNk2YQc28zeqQ738>
2. Submit the following to CLAVEfellowship@nl.edu
 - an essay as described in the online application at the link above, and
 - two (2) letters of recommendation (professional and/or academic)

CLAVE Doctoral Fellowship questions can be directed to
Ruth E. Quiroa, Ph.D. at RQuiroa@nl.edu and/or CLAVEfellowship@nl.edu

For additional Centro de Excelencia programming see: <https://nl.edu/centro-de-excelencia-at-nlu/>