Curriculum Renewal for Islamic Education

Critical Perspectives on Teaching Islam in Primary and Secondary Schools

Edited by Nadeem A. Memon, University of South Australia
Mariam Alhashmi, Zayed University and Mohamad Abdalla, University of South Australia

Series: Routledge Research in Religion and Education

This book demonstrates how and why it is necessary to redesign Islamic Education curriculum in the K-12 sector globally. From Western public schools that integrate Muslim perspectives to be culturally responsive, to public and private schools in Muslim minority and majority contexts that teach Islamic Studies as a core subject, the volume highlights the unique global and sociocultural contexts that support the disparate trajectories of Islamic Education curricula. This text will benefit researchers, doctoral students, and academics in the fields of secondary education, Islamic education, and curriculum studies.
