

NATIONAL LOUIS UNIVERSITY
National College of Education™

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY

P R E S E N T S

Critical Visual Literacy Professional Development Workshop Series

JAN-APRIL 2025

Click here
to register

Join our engaging professional development workshop series designed for educators across Illinois and the Midwest Region. This series will equip you with critical visual literacy (CVL) skills to analyze and incorporate visual primary sources from the Library of Congress into your teaching. Critical visual literacy connects to cultural responsiveness, addressing power dynamics and marginalized groups' experiences, aligning with Illinois CRTL standards and the TEAACH and LGBTQ curricula.

SCHEDULE:

January-April, 2025

Monthly, two-hour sessions on Zoom, TBA

TOPICS: (Tentative Dates/Time)

Four Zoom sessions presented by National Louis University, Illinois State University, University of North Dakota faculty, and K-12 Classroom teachers

- Workshop #1 (January 11th, Saturday, 9-11 am):
Introduction to Critical Visual Literacy & Library of Congress Visual Primary Sources
- Workshop #2 (February): Applications of the Framework with Lesson Planning Examples Part I
- Workshop #3 (March): Applications of the Framework with Lesson Planning Examples Part II
- Workshop #4 (April): Final Product Sharing & Reflection

PARTICIPANT BENEFIT:

Participants will...

- create and implement a critical visual literacy activity that meets standards and state mandates, with support from faculty and K-12 teachers
- earn 12 professional development hours
- earn $250 stipend
- receive a digital backpack with critical visual literacy educational resources

Limited to 15 participants – Workshop open to K-12 teachers and higher Ed faculty

Deadline to Register for the Workshop:

DECEMBER 31, 2024

SCAN THE QR CODE TO REGISTER

FUNDED BY

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
TEACHING WITH PRIMARY SOURCES

FOR MORE INFORMATION,
CONTACT: Hyeju Han • hhan@nl.edu

nl.edu
888.658.8632