

NLU SCHOLARSHIP & RESEARCH

The Research Support Group (RSG), the Center for Teaching and Learning Excellence (CTLE) and El Centro de Excelencia invite you to NLU Writing Sanctuary, a virtual accountability and collaboration work space that will be twice weekly, 9am-10am, Tuesdays and Fridays, starting Oct 26th through June 28th.

What: 1-hour zoom session. There will be two zoom rooms open: Shared Silent Space and Feedback Forest. In Shared Silent Space, join when it works for you, post your goals in chat, and work surrounded (virtually) by others doing the same thing. In Feedback Forest, join a facilitator and others in non-judgmental conversation to problem solve, germinate ideas and get feedback. You can pop into Feedback Forest at any time during the session.

Why: These kinds of accountability spaces create a nurturing atmosphere and a committed time for you to set and progress in your research, writing, and other projects. You'll find it makes an amazing difference in getting things done.

Who: All faculty, staff and doctoral students.
