

Please join us for the National College of Education's

Annual Doctoral Community Meeting

with students, alumni, and faculty of the

EDD in Teaching and Learning Program
(Comprised of CAP, DEE, LDE, and RLD Doctoral Majors)

for

Scholarly Dialogue | Town Hall | Breakout Sessions | Networking
(See schedule overview below for details)

Saturday, May 3rd, 2025
9:00 am to 4:15 pm

National Louis University
Chicago's Gage Campus - 4th Floor

RSVP HERE by 4-18-25

In person participation encouraged, but Zoom is available.

Please contact TJSmith@nl.edu with questions.

2025 Doctoral Community Meetings Schedule Overview

9:00 - 9:20 am	Opening Forum Welcome and overview of the day
9:30 -10:40 am	Publishing Books and Journals - Antonina Lukenchuk and Molly Buren	Social, political, and ethical implications of AI. - A conversation. Terry Smith and Doug VanDyke	The Autonomic Nervous System and Education Mays Imad and Students
10:50 - noon	Writing for Doctoral Coursework.	Community Engagement, Research & Advocacy. Blanca Gamez-Djokic, Shaunti Knauth, Alexandra Baig, Bari Fleischer & Molly Buren	Cultivating Critical Positionality in Doctoral Research (& Beyond) with Hannah Graham
12:10 - 1:35 pm	Town Hall - Solidarity, Sanctuary, and Strategy Faculty, Alumni & Students will discuss hopes/desires for our community.
1:45 to 2:30 pm	CAP Major Program Meeting	DEE Major Program Meeting	LDE Major Program Meeting	RLD Major Program Meeting
2:40- 4:15 pm	Student Alumni Advisory Board hosts: A Dissertation Discussion with Students currently at various stages of the process			