

Preserving Korean American History in Chicago

Friday, May 31, 11am-12:30pm
Sulzer Regional, Auditorium

CPL's Korean American Archives project seeks to document the daily lives of Korean Americans in Chicago. At 11am, join us for a panel discussion with:

- Eun Kyung Ko, Ph.D., Assistant Principal, Chicago Korean School and Treasurer, Midwest Korean School Association
- Won J. Park, Producer/Journalist, News Magazine Chicago, Korean American Broadcasting
- Julie Eunju Choi, 35th/36th President, Korean American Association of Chicago and CEO, Dooco USA Inc.
- Ho B. Kim, chairman of the board, Sejong Cultural Society and President, KP World, Inc.

At 12pm, there will be a 20-minute screening of a documentary by Man-Sung Son, a retired Columbia College Film School professor and filmmaker.
